

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

It does not serve the people of this country well when the vast majority of media outlets are owned by only a few large corporations. Their concern is for profit, and this affects the quality and impartiality of the news they deliver.

I strongly oppose further deregulation of the media.
